Dear Frank,

Sovereign Bank Stadium recently celebrated its first anniversary and is well into the second season as home to the York Revolution. Laying the groundwork for and constructing Sovereign Bank Stadium was no small feat and would not have been possible without the support and efforts of many York County community and business organizations.

In the 2007 inaugural season alone, over 219,000 fans graced the stands of Sovereign Bank Stadium. "Rev" fan enthusiasm continues into the 2008 baseball season. Additionally, the Stadium has been the venue for of an array of fundraising, conferences and entertainment events. Furthermore, Sovereign Bank Stadium is a catalyst for redevelopment activities occurring within or planned for York County's vital urban core.

On behalf of the York County Industrial Development Authority, I express the Authority's gratitude to Lobar for its role in creating this tremendous community asset. The York County Industrial Development Authority is proud to be the owner of Sovereign Bank Stadium, but is quick to realize that this achievement could not have come to life without community and business participation. Together, we have created a landmark that truly transcends bricks and mortar- it has united York County's spirit.

GO "REVS !!"
